Beecham's Pills have proved their value, time after time, in countless cases of digestive trouble; they are regarded, today, as one of the most efficacious digestive remedies ever produced. Such testimony—coming from those who have given Beecham's Pills a fair trial—is highly satisfactory, and should go far to induce all sufferers, from ailments of the digestive system, to give the well-known medicine a try. Digestive trouble is responsible for most of the recurring ailments of which we have all more or less experienced—discomfort after eating, flatulence, bilious attacks, constipation, headaches, loss of energy, and low spirits. Beecham's Pills relieve such ailments by impacting tone to the whole digestive system, enabling the organs concerned to perform their functions efficiently. Beecham's Pills are a safe and reliable medicine. Everybody may take them with advantage to health. In fact they

Mr. KENDALL desires to say further that when he commenced business on his own account, on May 1st, 1915, he had great confidence in what he would be able to do in time, of course, proving his health kept good. The success which has attended his efforts has far exceeded his most sanguine expectations. The business is fast increasing, roll up, friends, and await the flowing tide.

WORLD WAR ONE CONCERT PARTY

GOOD-BYE LITTLE YELLOW BIRD

(C.S Murphy & W.Hargreave 1903)

Good-bye, little yellow bird.
I'd rather brave the cold
On a leafless tree
Than a prisoner be
In a cage of gold

1914-2014

KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING

(Ivor Novello 1914)

Keep the Home Fires Burning,
While your hearts are yearning.
Though your lads are far away
They dream of home.
There's a silver lining
Through the dark clouds shining,
Turn the dark cloud inside out
'Til the boys come home.

ROSES IN PICARDY

(Wetherley & Wood 1916)

Roses are shining in Picardy, in the hush of the silvery dew,
Roses are flowering in Picardy, but there's never a rose like you!
And the roses will die with the summertime, and our roads may be far apart,
But there's one rose that dies not in Picardy!
'tis the rose that I keep in my heart!

IT'S A LONG WAY TO TIPPERARY

(Jack Judge 1912)

It's a long way to Tipperary,
It's a long way to go.
It's a long way to Tipperary
To the sweetest girl I know!
Goodbye, Piccadilly
Farewell, Leicester Square!
It's a long long way to Tipperary,
But my heart's right there.

MEET ME GWEN ON SHIPLEY GLEN

(Sutton & Bolton c. 1900)

Meet me Gwen on Shipley Glen
On Sunday afternoon
Near 'number nine' we'll have a good time,
And return by the light of the moon.
You'll enjoy it up there
'Cos you'll get the Saltaire
And you'll fancy you're out by the sea
Then if you're willing and I have a shilling
We'll call at Dick Hudson's for tea.

SERGEANT BROWN

(Long & Scott 1917)

Sergeant Brown, Sergeant Brown
Keep an eye on Tommy for me
For he might go wrong on the continong
When he reaches gay Paree
He'll learn to parley-vous,
They always do, when a French girl they see
But if my boy Tommy wants to parley-vous
Let him come home and parley-vous with me

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

(Felix Powell & George Powell 1915)

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
And smile, smile, smile,
While you've a Lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys, that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while, so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
And smile, smile, smile
